

SAN JUAN WATER DISTRICT

Transition to Division-Based Elections

May 14, 2020

San Juan Water District holds elections for members of its five-member Board of Directors every two years on a staggered schedule (two positions in 2020, three in 2022) for four-year terms. These elections are held via “at-large” elections – meaning all voters in San Juan’s wholesale service area which includes your business or household – are eligible to vote for any director candidates running to fill the open positions on the Board.

On March 30, 2020, San Juan Water District received a certified letter from lawyers for the Southwest Voter Registration Education Project alleging that the District’s method of electing Board members through “at-large” elections, rather than elections by division, violates the California Voting Rights Act.

On May 13, 2020, the District’s Board of Directors adopted a resolution declaring its intent to initiate procedures to transition from at-large elections to division-based elections. The District will implement a division-based election system beginning with the November 2022 election.

The Board of Directors has directed staff to work with a demographer, and other consultants as needed, to analyze the District’s current demographics and any other information or data necessary. They will prepare one or more draft maps that divide the District into proposed voting divisions in a manner consistent with the California and federal Voting Rights Acts requirements.

The following table lays out the steps the District will take to implement division-based elections. As a resident in San Juan Water District’s service area, we encourage you to participate in the electoral division mapping process by attending the public meetings shown here and submitting your oral or written comments about the maps showing the proposed voting divisions.
